COTTON

NEW YORK Peb. 17.—Cotton was lower day under continued acattering liquidation he close was steady at a net decline of today under continued scattering liquidation. The close was steady at a net decline of 11 to 12 points.

Relatively easy Liverpool cables were accompanied by some foreign selling orders at the opening. First prices were bately steady at a decline of five to seven points. Active months sold about seven to nine points net lower during the early trading. There was some trade buying on this decline, while offerings were by no means heavy or general, and prices soon railied to within three or four points of last night's closing on covering. Another slight raily occurred during the early afternoon on the continued heavy exports, but the market weakened again in the later trading under further kiquilation, and rather more aggressive selling, which appeared to be encouraged by talk of an easier spot market. The close was at the day's lowest.

Southern reports said it was easier to busy spot cotton today than for some time past, and predictions that winter killed grain in the southwest might be replaced with cotton this apring may also have been a factor on the late decline. Southern spot markets as officially reported were one eighth lower to four points higher generally unchanged.

Continued apprehension of a cheek to the export meaning was tone were expressed ment in the naval war rose were expressed export nievements through possible develop-ment in the naval war rone were expressed during the day, and the decline in stering exchange has also encouraged predictions of diminished activity on the part of foreign Galveston Cotton, GALVESTON, Texas Feb. 17.—Middling $8.45; receipts 25,117; exports 50,895; sales 2,064; stock 587,681.
